Many Outside Herds Are Being Shipped Here for Willows Exhibition

MANITOBA SENDING ABERDEEN ANGUSES

Nearly 200 head of cattle already have been entered in the Willows exhibition, to be held September 11 to 16, W. H. Means, secretary of the British Columbia Agricultural Association, announced yesterday. Judging from the entries received to date, there will be much stronger representation from outside points than from local farms, while beef cattle will predominate rather than dairy herds.

One of the largest strings of cattle is coming all the way from Portage La Prairie, Manitoba, Harry Leader

Mount Shishaldin Defies Explorers

ABOVE are shown Father Bernard Hubbard, S.J., scientist and explorer, and members of his party, taking a rest at the base of Mount Shishaldin's icy cone before tackling the final stage of the ascent. It was on this volcanic mountain that the party, comprising, besides the "Glacier Priest," Roderick Chisholm, Edgar Levin and George Petersen, had a thrilling battle against a 100-mile hurricane this Summer. Shishaldin appears angry at the assault being made by the party, and is expressing her wrath in dense volumes of smoke.

Forty-Seven Seats

There will be forty-seven seats in the Eighteenth Legislature, Victoria and Vancouver having plural memberships. By law, it is explained, a period of twenty-one days must elapse between the monthly court of revision and nomination day. September 18 is the date of the next court, and it may last more than one day. October 12 is given as the first day after the September court on which nominations could be held. Also by law, a period of twenty-one days must elapse between nomination day and polling day, bringing the date of polling to November 2.

Final Court November 23

At the end of a further period of three weeks, the final court of the board, the final date of the ballots is made and this will take place on November 23. Due to the absentee ballots, the final and official count may not be known much before November 30. As a matter of fact, as soon as the Government, in July, made concrete provision affecting courts of revision, August and September, it was foreseen that the polling date would likely fall between November 8 and November 9. Choosing November 2, the Government has taken the earlier of these two dates.

Not until nominations are actually in and closed on October 12 will the complete list of official candidates be known.

SECOND COURSE NOT APPROVED

Students Over Sixteen Must Pay $90 If They Wish
New Subjects

Saanich High School students who have completed their elementary education and the three-year high school course, and are just sixteen years of age, will not be permitted to return to school to start a new course, it was decided last night, at a Saanich School Board meeting.

Trustee William Tones sponsored a motion seeking to allow students, who had reached sixteen years of age, to continue for one year providing they paid a fee. But his motion failed to receive support.

Trustee Walter P. Jeanne was not in favor of this since it would soon have the school population overflowing the schools. He said he was in favor of a free three-year course, after which students would have to pay the full $90 fee.

Repeating, Trustee Tones said that it would make better citizens of boys and girls if they were allowed to return to school for one year.

Trustee Jeanne asked: "Would you let all students start a new course after sixteen who have completed their full education on payment of the $10 fee?"

"Yes," replied Trustee Tones, "I am in favor of letting them go back for one year, even starting a new course."

The motion by Trustee Tones was then submitted, but failed to find support.

DRAMATIC SCENE IS ENACTED IN COURT; HOLD-UP CASE HEARD

"That's a lie," Wing Hing yelled as he jumped to his feet. The sound of his voice startled the crowded court room. Mr. Higgins ordered his client to stand by him to see that there was no more interference from this quarter. A Provincial Police officer also stood by to see that Wing did not interrupt the proceedings again. Dan, continuing with his evidence, said that his two brothers left him later in the evening and that he and Wing had gone to a Chinese store on Government Street. Wing got out of the car and entered the store, and Dan followed. Just as Dan was about to enter the store, Shun Jack passed by. They exchanged words and Dan then entered the store and Shun walked on up the street, witness said.

PLAN SUGGESTED

Witness testified that in the store Wing had said to him "You had your car repaired some time ago and haven't paid the bill. I had my motorcycle repaired, too, and the bill isn't paid. We have got to get some money somehow. How about going out to Hatley Park and holding up Dan and Harry Wong?" Wing said he wanted to get another boy to help them," Dan declared.

Wing left the store and went to Fisgard Street, where they met Fong Sing. Wing took Fong and talked to him and then returned to Dan, witness continued. Then witness and Wing returned to the store where they changed their clothes and were joined by Fong. Three guns were handed out by Wing. One of the guns belonged to Dan. Witness said he had got it from his father and had loaned it to him. He and his two companions drove back to town and went to a restaurant, where "the stuff was divided between us," Dan continued.

CAR HIDDEN

The trio then proceeded to Hatley Park, drove into the grounds and hid their car some distance from the house occupied by Harry Wong and Shun Jack, Dan said. When Harry Wong and Shun Jack drew up in their car shortly after midnight, witness said he jumped on to the left running board, while Wing and Fong jumped onto the right running board. The three guns were pointed at the two occupants and they were forced to leave the car on the right side. Dan said he did not see what happened after that. He and his two companions drove back to town and went to a restaurant, where "the stuff was divided between us," Dan continued.

Nothing Small in This Fish Story

REGINA, Aug. 30 (CP).—The first fish story has come out of Riding Mountain National Park. Mrs. V. Luke, of Coronation, Alta., tells the tale. She says while fishing in the park her line became entangled with a second line that was lost. On pulling them in she found a ten-pound trout on the first one, and 300 feet farther on, a twelve-pound trout, caught on the second line.

World's Fair Marks Time By Millenium

TOKIO, Aug. 30 (AP).—Tokio is planning the Orient's greatest "world's fair" to be held seven years hence, and hoping to bring here at the same time the twelfth Olympic Games.

If the orthodox Japanese histories are accepted literally (which they are not by Western scholars), the Empire of Japan will be 2,600 years old in 1940.

This Japan's "world's fair" will celebrate history as measured by milleniums, contrasted with the brief centuries of history commemorated by the expositions staged by North American cities.

Train Accidents Toll Very Light

OTTAWA, Aug. 30 (CP).—Last year there were seven passengers killed and 339 injured in train accidents, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics says in a report today. This was an average of one killed for every 3,000,000 carried, and one injured for every 62,000.

There were fifty-seven employees killed in train accidents, and 957 injured, a low record for the last twenty-two years. There were ninety-four persons killed at highway crossings, of which seventy-eight were motorists, and of this number thirty were killed at protected crossings.

Rescued From Perilous Perch

LAKE PLACID, N.Y., Aug. 30 (AP).—Three Boy Scouts, marooned on a narrow ledge of Wall Face Mountain for two days, were lifted to a safe ledge 200 feet higher up the cliff, tonight, by rescuers, who succeeded in lowering them ropes.

They were placed under a physician's care, who said the boys would be removed when their condition permitted. The rescue was made by three expert mountain climbers from the Lake Placid Club, after more than twenty-four hours of constant work.

GEORGE EARNSHAW ORDERED TO RETIRE FOR REST OF YEAR

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30 (AP).—George Earnshaw, right-hand pitcher of Philadelphia Athletics, said today he had retired from baseball for the season at the request of Manager Connie Mack.

"All I know is I received a letter from Mr. Mack yesterday, asking me to retire for the season," he said, at his home in Swarthmore. "I went to Shibe Park, cleaned out my personal belongings and I am through for the year."

Earnshaw declined to state whether he planned to continue in baseball next year. It is said Earnshaw was at odds with the club over salary terms.

GARBO COMING By Fast Express

THOUSANDS OF EXTRA COPIES OF TRUE STORY MAGAZINE BEING RUSHED TO THIS CITY

Containing First Chapters of Garbo Story

"I consider this one of the greatest true stories that have ever been published, because it touches so deeply upon the hidden emotions of so many millions of women and puts the burden of defeat up to so many millions of men."

BERNARD MACFADDEN

BECAUSE of the beginning of the Great Greta Garbo Story, which it contains, True Story Magazine will be out four days early this month in order better to cover its extra distribution and the enormously increased demand.

Hundreds of thousands of extra copies are being rushed by fast express because practically every part of America and Canada are demanding more than their regular order.

Tonight the distribution of True Story Magazine will begin. Tomorrow morning it will be in the hands of eighty thousand newsdealers, newsstands and stores reaching from one end of the United States to the other and covering practically every city, town and village in the country. So much for the demand for the True Life Story and the True Love Story of this silent woman who starts sixty million people to arguing whenever she appears on the screen.

Now for the story itself. The True Love Life of Greta Garbo gives the reason for the first time for the sixty million arguments about her. This is no mere sex story out of Hollywood! It deals with the very fundamentals of life and it handles the decision which every woman has to make between her great desire and her greater yearning.

Ready at all newsstands tomorrow, Friday, September 1st.

Sinclair Falls for Temptation of Vest All Golden-Trimmed

Finds Another Canadian at Quetta Who Appears to Like India Rather Better Than the Roving Reporter—Also England

By GORDON SINCLAIR.

QUETTA, Baluchistan.—We knew we were heading into the breezy ballistics of Baluchistan brigades when Quetta's fine-tuned boxes came into view and they looked a carload of horse-faced Punjab on to our red train.

That was at Kolpud, a tank town that looked and felt like the inside of a volcano. Red and yellow rocks sprawled crazily across the vast countryside, with some colored as if by the reckless hand of a painter on a spree, dazed the eye. The sun, just tipping the highest peaks of the Hindoo Kooh, had not burned down into the valley.

Camel men were stirring their gaunt, slobbering brutes into action, while boys, robed in blue and black, bearers dashed out to the train to get their masters tea, ice, towels, did boom business, and so did the moon-faced girl who rented to all comers at the muddy bathing pool. One side of this mud puddle was for Hindus, the other for Muslims. I'd gone to the other side, so I plunged into both sides and got ninth crack at a flea-bitten towel. Even ninth is better than no towel at all.

BOUGHT LEATHER VEST

There was bustle and bedlam about the mail car as those pocket battleships, the Gurkhas, took over Persian women, with pear-shaped gems dangling from their noses, shuffled around trying to sell wooden amulets stuffed with magic sands to keep away evil and spirits, bangles of silver and elephant hair "dipped in the heart blood of wolves," and shaggy goatskin vests embroidered in fine-spoken gold. The vests were the best sucker bait I've yet found in Asia, so I bought one; but not even Boola Boola, the boy wonder, could tell what I'll ever do with it. Probably I can use it as a bridge costume, for I need a leather vest, the way I've been playing lately.

TROOPS AT ALL STATIONS

With two engines at back and one forward, we roared away into the golden hills. We had a mile and a half climb, spread over a thirty-mile surface; and it took four uproarious hours of puffing and grunting to get there.

At every little wayside station we stopped to give the sweating stokers time to get up more steam. At these stops, long-nosed troops swarmed along the train, and snipers, in little stone sweat-boxes on the hills, were on the lookout for dirty work. But nobody potted a shot at us, and I wasn't a dirty name.

The camel men, cluttered around railway water tanks, were amiable kidders. Once in a while they'd send boys over to dicker off a pair of fox skins for a case of soda pop. The asking price for the skins was seventy-five cents, but with a bit of Oriental acting you could pick up three for a dollar. Good soft skins, too.

Occasionally we dipped down into great rocky gorges and through black tunnels. In the gorges, the camel roads passed; and even these, a mile up in the Hindoo Kooh, were guarded by gates and women with babies roped to their ample hips.

NO WHITE WOMEN ALLOWED

When we swung within the Quetta eight-mile limit, beyond which white women are not allowed to go, secret service men came aboard to see who we all were and what about it.

The chap who came after me was one of those freshly-scrubbed young college soldiers who must have picked the world's part of the world reading "With the Rover Boys in

Canadian Airmen Has Narrow Escape

WHILE his wife, children and parents looked on, Errol Boyd, famous Canadian trans-Atlantic flyer, crashed into a field at Sutton, Ont. Rushing frantically to the wrecked plane, they learned to their joy, that the aviator, who was planning an endurance flight over Toronto, had escaped with nothing more than a few scalp lacerations. The plane is the famous Columbia, known to flyers as the "Queen of the Air." Boyd recently made a non-stop flight to Haiti in the Columbia, and the plane has twice flown the Atlantic. Workmen's Pension Scheme Is Outlined By Control Board

British Columbia Industry, Turning at Smaller Volume, Produced Fewer Accidents During 1932—Financing Is Explained

DISCLOSING difficult conditions under which all industries have operated in the last few years, the sixteenth annual report of the Workmen's Compensation Board is now printed and available for distribution, covering the operations of the board in 1932. The board, which is composed of E. S. H. Winn, K.C., chairman; Parker Williams and Hugh B. Gilmour, reports capitalized reserves at $8,300,043, and a gross budget of $3,831,242 last year.

The funds of the board, which are administered under its own act, come from payments by employers and employees, to which is added statutory provincial assistance. The assessments for 1932 were based on a volume of $140,935,102 of combined industrial payrolls paid in the year previous.

There was a reduction of 103 per cent in the number of firms operating, a decrease of about 20 per cent in the number of employees protected, and, based on lower wages, disbursements were also at a lesser rate. Some 7,654 firms operated under the plan in 1932, with 736 new firms being launched during the year.

Inevitable rise in the rate of assessment was indicated, due to lessened collections from smaller payrolls, and fixed benefits still to be paid out under the scheme. The report refers briefly to the test case by seventeen logging firms, which, won by the board in 1932, has been carried by the firm to the Privy Council. Assessment for medical costs was one of the points at issue.

NEARLY 400,000 CLAIMS

Claims filed during the sixteen years' operation of the plan now number 397,263, or an average of 24,829 a year. That period, 3,432 employees were fatally injured, 19,641 others totally or partially disabled for life. At the end of 1932, 783 widows, 944 children, 126 dependent mothers, thirty-five dependent fathers, and thirty-one other dependents. In all, 3,919 persons at the end of 1932 had been in receipt of monthly payments, with about 1,500 additional on part-time compensation.

Set up to care for future payments of existing pension claims, capitalized reserves of $8,300,043 were on hand at the end of 1932, there being no undivided surplus or profits in the reserve, which is based on actuarial bases. Fresh actuarial valuation of all pensions was carried out during last year, and the reserve funds found adequate to sustain what is required for aid and accident prevention work was furthered during the period.

AMOUNTS HANDLED

Highlights in the financing of the scheme include the following points: Employers paid $1,229,612 in assessments and interest last year; employees paid $1,229,612 in assessments and interest last year; employees paid $1,229,612 in assessments and interest last year.

JUST COULDN'T STAND IT

"Well, when I got to the house they started to jolly me about the English. Thought I sounded and acted like something off the stage. They thought the English were the bunk, too. I inhaled that with every meal for a week. Then I walked out. I think the English are the finest and grandest people on earth, don't you?"

"Would it be high treason if I told the truth?"

The colonel put that up. "Well, anyhow," he went on, "I quit the family and went to Montreal, then to Ottawa, Toronto and Niagara. No matter where I went, old friends, joshed me about becoming a Limey. They spoke of it with shocked sympathy as if I had the itch or maybe cancer. After four or five days I chucked the place and lit out for England, the white man's one perfect country. Since then I've knocked all over the shop, but I'll never go back to Canada. A place that doesn't like the English is no place for Dickey."

COUNCIL WILL CONVENE HERE

British Columbia Group of Canadian Club to Open Session Tomorrow

Representatives of an organization that has done a great deal to foster the national spirit in Canada, and more particularly in British Columbia—the Regional Council of Canadian Clubs in British Columbia—will assemble at the Empress Hotel, tomorrow morning, for an all-day convention, a luncheon and an official dinner.

Approximately twenty-five delegates of the council will be in attendance and will represent the individual Canadian Clubs in the province. Mrs. P. B. Scurrah, president of the Regional Council, will preside at the meeting and reports will be presented dealing with the activities of the council during the past year. The reports will include that of the president and the secretary-treasurer, W. T. Strath, and one from Col. Tait, chairman of the educational film committee.

TO NAME OFFICERS

The conference is scheduled to open promptly at 9:30 o'clock and after the official registration of delegates, general business will be taken up. Election of officers is scheduled for the morning session, with luncheon at 12:30 o'clock for members of the executive of the Men's and Women's Canadian Clubs of Victoria and official delegates. Following the luncheon, the afternoon session, if necessary, will get under way.

Arrangements have been completed for the official dinner at 7 o'clock in the ballroom of the hotel. The speaker will be Dr. Arnold Wolters, of Berlin, who will speak on "The Breakdown of Parliamentary Democracy in Europe." J. R. McLean, national secretary of the Association of Canadian Clubs, of Ottawa, will be the speaker at the luncheon.

Following the afternoon session, delegates will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart, at "Benvenuto."

SEEKS VIEWS OF AUTO ASSOCIATION

Oil Code Conference of National Recovery Act Program Likely to Affect Canada

As an indication or recognition of the prestige of the American Automobile Association, President Thomas P. Henry, of that organization, with which the Victoria Automobile Club is affiliated, has been requested by Franklin D. Roosevelt to act as consumer-adviser on the oil code of the N.R.A., National Recovery Act.

Since the oil code applies directly to interests of motorists, Mr. Henry's appointment is particularly important. Mr. Henry represented motorists at the hearing held in July, when he emphatically stated that the industry should be requested to improve its distribution practices, particularly multiplicity of gas stations in metropolitan areas, before any consideration is given higher prices for motor fuel.

R. W. Webb, secretary of the Victoria Automobile Club, states: "In this regard, it might be said, the same condition applies in Canada where frequently two, three or four gas stations are located in one block, on opposite corners, obviously adding to cost of distribution of gasoline. In view of the fact that the rise in the price of gas in the United States frequently influences a similar rise in Canada, this feature in distribution might well be considered by the companies."

Mr. Henry also vigorously opposed the section of the proposed code which would eliminate all credit arrangements for all petroleum products, a condition which would have imposed serious handicaps upon auto owners and firms giving credit to motorists, according to Mr. Webb.

ENCOURAGING SIGNS

The failure of the World Economic Conference in London has not given check in any particular to recovery from depression. It is true that it might have approved measures, and particularly the stabilization of exchange, which would have given a fillip to that recovery. It did not, and the situation in that respect remains as it has been since so many countries went off the gold standard. On the other hand, the conditions that were evident just prior to the gathering in London are maintaining. There is a definite recovery in business in all countries.

British post office returns, which had been declining from October, 1930, to September, 1932, now show progressive signs of improvement. In the past year telephone subscribers in the United Kingdom have increased by 66,000, although in the rest of the world they declined by about 2,000,000. The British Postmaster-General has predicted an unprecedented surplus on the operations of his department for the present financial year. In Britain today there are on an average for employed as there were an average for the six years preceding the war. Railway receipts show improvement. The Imperial Chemical Industries is about to embark on a large undertaking in the hydrogenation of coal. These and many other instances, particularly affecting the steel industry, could be quoted to show how Britain is emerging from the depression.

There is one factor that undoubtedly has had something substantial to do with Britain's recovery. That is that more money is available for development at home through a partial suspension of a previous practice of lending large sums abroad. Britain, too, is feeling the beneficial effects of the Imperial Trade Agreements. These are to be expanded, and amended where needed, as an outcome of Imperial conversations following the failure of the World Economic Conference. Every sign of the horizon is favorable. Probably the best sign of all is greater stability in men's minds.

THE YARMOUTH HERALD

Congratulations are in order to The Herald of Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, which has just celebrated the 100th anniversary of its first publication. Old as it is, The Herald was not the first newspaper in Yarmouth, for it was preceded by The Telegraph which issued its first number on November 25, 1831. That publication, however, expired on October 26, 1832. At the time The Herald appeared Yarmouth was a community with considerable shipping trade, especially to the West Indies. The founder of the paper, Mr. Alexander Lawson, filled the editor's chair and as well conducted the office business for sixty-two years, which must nearly constitute a record. He was succeeded by Mr. J. M. Lawson as editor and proprietor, who held control from 1895 to 1925, so that two generations of the family owned and edited The Herald for ninety-two years.

The Herald is a Liberal newspaper although nominally independent. It is widely popular in its district because of its staunch adherence to its principles and the fact that it is conducted in a style which deals with issues on their merits. Its founder made this declaration, which still holds good in its management: "If I have done any person any injustice I deeply regret it. If any have misjudged or cherished an unfriendly disposition towards me I have only to say that I never designed personal injury, that I have endeavored as far as possible to avoid personal reflection, and have avoided a feeling of ill will towards any individual." With views such as this printed on its masthead, long may The Herald thrive. It is one of the oldest newspapers in the country and one of the most sanely conducted.

A CHILDLIKE FAITH

Everyone knows the story of the South Sea Bubble and of those ingenious promoters who formed companies to extract silver from lead, to turn salt water into fresh, to introduce perpetual motion. It is said that shares were sold by a company "for carrying on an undertaking of great advantage, but nobody to know what it is," and one financial wizard, so we are told, actually succeeded in capitalizing the credulity and folly of the crowd to the extent of selling shares for an undertaking in due time to be revealed." Mr. J. S. Woodworth thinks it possible to achieve a similar success and has chosen a period of depression in which to commend his projects to the public. He dislikes capitalism, as an economic system. As a political device he is only too ready to capitalize the discontent which naturally accompanies hard times. He has chosen to issue in the political market a prospectus for some mysterious undertakings. Like his forerunner of two hundred years ago he demands of his supporters a severe exercise of faith. He makes large promises, he declares that his undertaking will pay big dividends, but he is discreetly silent as to the means by which his ends are to be achieved.

Mr. Woodworth is busily engaged in the task of indoctrinating his disciples with the pure theory of Socialism. He promises to endow his fellow citizens with a powerful motive guaranteed to make them work more zealously for the general good than they now work for themselves and their own families. How is this astonishing change to be effected? As Mr. Woodworth has not yet taken the people into his confidence in regard to this matter they must be content in the meantime. It will, perhaps, be effected by a method which is "in due time to be revealed."

Mr. Woodworth disapproves of our banks. The Canadian banking system has proved its worth in good times and bad. It is regarded by competent judges at home and abroad as sound, stable and secure. Our banks, they believe, should be maintained and, if possible, improved so that they may render even better service. That, however, is not Mr. Woodworth's idea. He wants to revoke their charters, so that when they have been put out of business, a National Bank can be created to "take over" their assets. Mr. Woodworth has made it quite clear that this is what he wants to do. He promises that his National Bank will lend money to municipalities and provinces at a much cheaper rate than that now charged by the chartered banks.

When doubts arise as to whether a National Bank, run by the party that happens to be in office at the moment, can safely be trusted to do business in this way, and when it is pointed out that political pressure applied by politicians in the localities concerned might induce the National Bank to negotiate some bad and demoralizing loans, loans on a basis of political support rather than sound financial security, the answer is ready. We are not put off with the promise that these dangers will be averted by a method which "in due time to be revealed." The Socialists reply promptly, and with a touching faith, that it would never do to trust a Tory or a Liberal government with such a difficult task, but that owing to their peculiar Socialistic mentality, their high moral sense, their public spirit, and their devotion to the ideals of service as soldiers of the common good, the C.C.F. can with perfect safety be entrusted with this great responsibility.

THE NEW ALCHEMY

Messrs. Crockett and Walton, two young Cambridge scientists who were credited last year with splitting the atom have now been successful in changing one chemical element into another. In other words, they have been able to separate the smaller particles or electric particles from the larger particles and "to use the lesser shot," for the purpose of exploding the atomic bomb. Where a direct hit is made enormous energy is released. In the rushing together again of the gaseous or electric particles new combinations are formed; the fabric of matter is transformed. It is this coagulation of the materials of an exploded atom that registers the change from one element to another.

The new experiment may precede the possibility of a practical alchemy. It is, at all events, the nearest thing to fulfilling the dream of the philosopher's stone that has yet been discovered. The announcement from Cambridge University is attracting widespread attention. Its effect on scientific development is as yet impossible to estimate. Up to date the triumph of the chemist has revolutionized modern industrial methods. The new discovery bids fair to mark another milestone in the process.

ON THE DOWNS

Only the harebells and the lark are near; The bumble bees, beseeching all around— There are the electric, hot, persistent sound— Even the flints to rose themselves and hear. But only more of peace her bumbling seems To give their desolation, give my dreams. Surely, one indistinguishable day A Roman sentinel, when times were slack, Hefted his high lark, and lay upon his back, And heard the brown, uncaring bumble say How but for her the sky itself would fail, And then he slept in the sun and dreamed of Gaul. —Francis Cornford, in The Spectator.

THE FAIRY COBBLER

In the silver green of the half-pipe corn, Where the poppies are dancing in the wind, And the spider weaves from his silken thread A net for the careless fly. On a leaden brown silt a wee old man, With eyes of the sky's own blue, He is clad in a coat of field-mouse skin, And he cobbles a fairy's shoe. Of cornflower petals the shoes are made, And sewn with a cobweb thread. The dew-drop buckles he finds at dawn, Where they sparkle on the poppies red. He piles his trade from the peep of day, Through the golden hours of noon. And the evening star from the darkening sky Finds him cobblering fairy shoes. —Kathleen M. Grant, in "A Book of George Square Verse."

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

Keep to the point, boys.

The above couplet is from an old song, or it may have been an old hymn. It was a rather extraordinary address delivered by Mr. Robert Connell at a C.C.F. political meeting which recalled the words to our mind. We were not surprised at the announcement that our friend and contemporary commentator had become an apostle and expounder of the advanced doctrine of the Canadian Commonwealth Federation, for he has always been inclined perceptibly to the Left; but we were shocked after reading that Mr. Connell was an advocate of arbitrary methods, indeed of mob rule.

The suggestion of the new recruit of the C.C.F. that public meetings should be called, resolutions passed denouncing the Provincial Government for clinging to office long after it had lost the confidence of the people, and deputations appointed to wait upon the Lieutenant-Governor to demand the dismissal of the administration indicated that Mr. Connell has advanced farther to the Left than few of his friends believed possible.

Mr. Connell as a student of botany, geology, and no doubt also of biology, must know that order is one of the first laws of nature and that the processes of nature cannot be hurried. With very few exceptions, the processes of politics in Canada have been conducted in an orderly manner and in accordance with the provisions of the national constitution. Arbitrary acts on the part of authority cannot be tolerated, not only because they are invariably followed by serious consequences to the society, but they lead to political turmoil. There are examples of this fact to be found in the political history of British Columbia and of some of the other provinces.

If the Government has lost the confidence of the people, that fact will be demonstrated by the constitutional process of a general election. The issue cannot be determined by decree of either the impetuous friend Mr. Pattullo or the hasty declarations of our co-leaders of the C.C.F. The present Government was chosen to take charge of the affairs of the province for a constitutionally stipulated term by the voice of a vast majority of the people, and would be warranted in staying in office, if the matter came to a fine point, until the Legislature presently to be chosen by popular vote and turned it out by a vote of want of confidence. The fact that one political party, or any one of the multitude of political parties, believes that the Government is doomed to defeat has nothing whatever to do with the case.

The leader of the Opposition is eager for an election because he believes that after an election he will be called upon to form a Government. Mr. Connell and his old or new friends, as the case may be, want an immediate election because they believe there are signs in the political heavens of a social and economic revolution. But we believe the majority of the people of British Columbia prefer orderly processes to political and economic chaos, and that whatever may happen as a result of the impending election, there will not be a revolution. There have been revolutions in other countries, and the consequences to the common people of those countries have not been so happy for our people as they are likely to be for any such rash experiments.

In the meantime the province is not suffering under the administration of the present Government. If there should be a change of Government as a result of the election, there will be no miraculous change for the better in the circumstances of the people. The administration of public affairs will be carried on just as it was under the departed order with due regard to economy. In the interests of the over-burdened taxpayers for the circumstances will not warrant any rash experiments. The present Government was elected at a time when a period of great business and industrial activity was about to be succeeded by a period of intense depression, aggravated by the prodigality of previous administrations. Any favor the Government may have lost was primarily due to those two unavoidable factors. When the term of the Government expires and an election takes place, the depression will be passing and brighter times arriving. In any case, there are neither political nor social reasons for hastening an election by either mob demands addressed to the Lieutenant-Governor or demagogic appeals to the emotions of the people. Let the public business of the province be conducted with decency and order.

Publicity Bureau Handed List of 1,000 Names From Exhibit at Chicago Exhibition

Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau is now in possession of over 1,000 names of prospective residents and tourists for this city and the Island, due to the co-operation of the local bureau, the Seattle Chamber of Commerce and the Puget Sounders and British Columbia organizations.

The names were secured at the Washington State exhibit at the Century of Progress Exhibition at Chicago and forwarded to George I. Warren, commissioner of publicity here. The Washington State Chamber of Commerce maintains a staff at the exhibit at Chicago for the sole purpose of contacting prospective visitors to the Coast region and inquiries concerning Victoria and Vancouver Island were segregated for the use of the Victoria bureau. Yesterday the bureau commenced sending out full information to the individuals contained in the list, and it is anticipated there will be a steady return during the coming tourist season.

Kids are priceless—and there's no telling what's going on in their ready little minds. Open we'll see a dear, pie-faced, innocent-looking little fellow leading his baby sister past his admiring, sipping—was-the-verandah relatives, and we fondly imagine "what a dear little chap he is, and how sweet to his little sister!" Two minutes later, however, he is more than likely to be heard "pathetic" squawking from the region of the rock garden—whereupon mother flutters to the spot to "pick up" the "dear little" who is "moping the lily pond" while Bertie (kneeling on her back) hoots raucously while dangling a water-snake two inches of his beloved little sister's nose.

Something on a par with the above happened yesterday morning. On the Winch Building entrance into the "dear little" was a most guttural face on earth—and by him, fawned and capered a comical kid-kind-eyed daughter of a parentage that could only be termed "vulgar." The little boy's face was a-bubbling with some sort of sticky cake or confection, and his right hand was waving a "holistic" "goodie" in the same to "good" boy. So, of course, we thought, "what a nice, generous little boy, and wouldn't it be something for him to have someone would only amble along with a camera and snap this innocent 'study'."

The camera, however (and we thought, "unfortunate" was the thought)—but, of course, we had to wait for the happy climax when that "dear little" would "pick up" the "holistic" "goodie" or whatever horrible name you care to give it, and thereby titillate, or at least take up some of the slack that would be the obvious around "Tracy's" tummy.

"Beg" piped this "dear little" and, of course, "Tracy" begged. Then "dear little" smirked the "dear little fellow" as

NO TRUMP TAKEOUTS No trump takeouts of opening suit bids when only sufficient to overall may show hands containing no more than the equivalent of an ace and a queen in honor cards. Such takeouts, however, usually imply some sort of a fit with partner's holding, and except in rare instances, when no other bid is available, a negative no trump (i.e., a bid of no trump only sufficient to overall) should be made, which void of partner's suit or holding, only a singleton in it.

Some players are inclined to make a bid and make it on honor holdings as weak as the queens or possibly even a queen and a knave in different suits. This is a bad habit, and the consequence to the common people of those countries have not been so happy for our people as they are likely to be for any such rash experiments.

SYLVIA SIDNEY IS STAR AT CAPITOL

Has Leading Role in Portrayal of Theodore Dreiser's "Jennie Gerhardt"—Added Feature

Sylvia Sidney plays one of the most difficult roles ever essayed by an actress as the heroine of Theodore Dreiser's "Jennie Gerhardt," which comes today to the Capitol Theatre. The picture is a B. P. Schulberg production for Paramount.

Literary critics have pronounced "Jennie Gerhardt" the greatest study of modern woman ever written by an author. It is a story of a girl destined for love who finds spiritual happiness only after the most dramatic adventures and misadventures such a girl can encounter. The film covers a span of twenty-eight years, while Sylvia Sidney changes from a fresh and lovely girl of eighteen into a grey-haired woman, almost fifty, but still retaining the same charm as in her youth.

The actress is required not only to vary her characterization with the advancing years, but to shade her performance in keeping with the changes in feminine conduct and fashions which took place during the period.

Also shown is the human, laughable drama, "Mamma Loves Papa," with Charles Ruggles and Mary Boland.

"Private Jones"

In motion pictures only one year, and already recognized as one of the screen's leading actresses with potential stardom clearly visible, Gloria Stuart, golden-haired beauty who is seen this week at the Columbia Theatre in Universal's war-time drama, "Private Jones," has more than lived up to the promise she evidenced when taken from the ranks of amateur stage artists.

Buddhist Relic Found in Northern British Columbia, and Now in Possession of John Forsyth, Confirms Belief That Western Hemisphere Was Once Inhabited by Chinese Race

—Photograph by Savannah.

ABOVE is the Oriental talisman dating back to 2,000 B.C., which was discovered with other Buddhist relics in a jar that was entombed in the roots of an uprooted tree centuries ago. The find was made in Northern British Columbia, and through the efforts of John Forsyth, former provincial librarian and authority on early British Columbia history, an interesting story surrounding its deposit on these shores has been uncovered.

In "Private Jones," as the war worker in the cantonments who seems a literal angel to the embittered doughboy, portrayed by Lee Tracy, in this human screen war document, Gloria Stuart is said to accomplish the most genuinely artistic portrayal of her brilliant career, and to reach the climax of her year's progression on the screen. Also on the same bill is "We Gamblers," starring Jack Oakie.

Mystery Film

A widow, a dope peddler, a detective and his prisoner, a drunk, a jeweler, a bride and groom, a young reporter and a girl, and an escaped murderer all ride the same Pullman train through the night. That is the basic setting of Columbia's "Private Jones."

In "The Rebel," now playing at the Playhouse Theatre, Luis Trenker, displays his talents as a world-famous mountain climber and ski expert. The Continental star is supported in this Universal Special by Vilma Banky and Victor Varconi.

ANN DVORAK HAS MAID
AS HER GERMAN TUTOR

Ann Dvorak, one of the principal players in "Three on a Match," coming to the Empire Theatre, Friday, has a new maid. She was selected, after weeks of interviewing prospective servants, not for her talents as a housewife, but for her ability to speak German.

Ann plans to spend the rest of her life working at some language, and believes she has a chance to use them in a couple of years when she and her husband, Leslie Fenton, go abroad, as they are planning to do.

Joan Blondell and Bette Davis are the other two girls in the picture, which is an original screen drama by Kubec Glasmon and John Bright.

FURTHER evidence that British Columbia once was inhabited by the Chinese race, and that the origin of the Indian race on this Coast may have been Asiatic, has been uncovered by John Forsyth, former provincial librarian, and authority on early British Columbia history.

A Chinese talisman dating back to 2,000 B.C. has been unearthed in the roots of an uprooted tree centuries ago. The find was made in Northern British Columbia, and through the efforts of John Forsyth, former provincial librarian and authority on early British Columbia history, an interesting story surrounding its deposit on these shores has been uncovered.

Chinese officials in Peking proposed to identify it as dating from 2,000 B.C., and about which time a Chinese general set forth on an expedition which may have reached this coast, Mr. Forsyth stated.

Authorities of several large museums who have examined the talisman have placed the period of its creation from 1,500 to 4,000 years ago.

COMMON ANCESTRY
The Indian who dug up this relic belonged to a northern tribe and bore a strong resemblance to the Mongolian race. He claimed a common ancestry with the Chinese and was especially well disposed to these people, Mr. Forsyth said.

It was a Chinese to whom the talisman was first given. This incident, together with other evidence of antiquity, would support the belief that Western America was the place named Fusang by early Chinese historians, and was based on the report of a Buddhist monk on the support of a missionary named Hsueh-Shin, in the year 499 A.D., who returned from a long journey to the West.

Mr. Forsyth continued.
This report was regularly entered in the year book or annals of the Chinese Empire. Discoveries of such relics as this talisman would seem to strengthen the contention that the honor of discovering the New World belongs to the Asiatic rather than the European.

DIFFICULT CIPHER
"The great age of this relic makes the work of deciphering extremely difficult. It is of very ancient Chinese or Persian origin. One specialist states it contains the Emperor's orders to his subjects to keep the law of six rules and nine chapters, which is one of the fundamental theories on the belief of K'ung philosophy," Mr. Forsyth said.

The curator of a large American museum says the long inscription on one side is as follows:
"Tai Shang's charm says, 'Heaven is round and the earth square. The six rules and nine regulations ordain that wherever the spirit of this charm shall visit, all evils shall be exterminated.'"

The other side has the correct Chinese characters as follows:
"The great age of this relic makes the work of deciphering extremely difficult. It is of very ancient Chinese or Persian origin. One specialist states it contains the Emperor's orders to his subjects to keep the law of six rules and nine chapters, which is one of the fundamental theories on the belief of K'ung philosophy," Mr. Forsyth said.

ample; words alone will be of no avail.
Born August 31 is the date of your birth, you are a person who can not stand to be idle. Yours is a creative and constructive mind and a long and relaxed life is generally yours. You are a person who enjoys research, and you like to experiment. Your interests lead you to inquire as to how mankind may be helped or benefited. As a doctor, legislator or psychologist, you are very human person and a kindly one. You do not like to see people suffer and if there is any way within your power to alleviate suffering, you will have no stone unturned to bring about that accomplishment. You undoubtedly do many charitable deeds during the course of which you give freely of your time and money to help those in need. You are not one who likes publicity and most of your good works are done on the quiet.

On August 31, you speak and write. Yours is a rugged character, you stand firm in the face of adversity and unless you are proved to be wrong, you are not your position. Your very presence does much to cheer people. This is due, perhaps, to a radiant smile and a generally cheery disposition. You will make a splendid husband or wife, as the case may be, and your children will be models of right upbringing.

Piggly Wiggly
HAS NEW STORE

Company Announces Opening of Shop at 1627 Douglas Street—Invites Public Inspection

Announcement was made yesterday by Gordon Ogilvie, manager of the Piggly Wiggly organization in Victoria, of the opening of a new store at 1627 Douglas Street, there by adding to their grocery stores in the Capital City.

"Since opening our first store here in April, 1929, we have gradually added to our chain stores until now we have six operating in the city. Our confidence in Victoria has been fully justified," Mr. Ogilvie stated.

The Piggly Wiggly company operates in Canada under a Dominion House of Commons and a Vancouver, Calgary and Winnipeg. The company is owned and controlled by the officers and directors, who are at all times actively engaged in the direction and management of the chain organization, and is wholly distinct from any title or financial institution either local or foreign. The policy of the company has always been to give preference to British Columbia and Canadian-made goods.

The management of the Victoria group extends a cordial invitation to the public to visit the newest store on Douglas Street.

What Today Means
"VIRGO"
If August 31 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9 to 11 a.m. from 2:30 to 3 p.m. and from 6:15 to 7 p.m. The danger periods are from 7:40 to 8:30 a.m., from 12:30 to 1 p.m. and from 9:30 to 10:30 p.m.

Influences operating on this date will probably make you feel in high spirits. Do not, in an outburst of enthusiasm, take on any commitments that you will not be able to fill in the future. There is danger on this day in trying too strongly on the counsel of others, even though they are trusted and tried.

The child born on this August 31 will probably have a very charming and winning way about him. People will be inclined to fuss over him and to be too demonstrative towards him. A healthy outdoor life will do much to give to this little one a sane outlook on life and a right set of values. His parents must always set him a right example.

GOLD MEDAL AWARDED
The expert typist's gold medal (sixty words a minute) has been won by Miss Muriel Davenport, with a net rate of sixty-six words a minute, and the high-speed accuracy certificate by Miss Peggy White, with the unusually high net rate of eighty-one words a minute. A number of the students have also obtained the senior accuracy typewriting awards and general proficiency diplomas, with averages of more than 90 per cent. It was announced that Miss Verna Beek was the leading graduate for 1932, with an average of 93.2 per cent for the complete commercial course.

Miss Eleanor Dempsey headed the bookkeeping department with an average of 100 per cent, while the other students were awarded certificates.

SALMON FISHING ATTRACTS MANY

Ardent fishermen from all parts of the continent are being drawn to Vancouver Island at the present time by the lure of the famous salmon, which are now running well in the streams and rivers.

Among the latest arrivals to the city is Dr. Charles E. Carr, prominent surgeon of the New York Hospital, who, with his son, passed through Victoria yesterday on their way to Campbell River. Dr. R. Randolph, of Los Angeles, also reached the city yesterday in search of salmon streams.

Mrs. W. C. Butler, of Everett, who has just left the Island, caught a forty-seven-pound salmon at Campbell River this week, qualifying for the silver button of the Tye Club.

ALBERTA MEMBER IS COMING HERE

E. J. Garland, M.P. for Bow River, to Address C.C.F. Meeting on September 11

Edward J. Garland, member for Bow River, Alberta, in the Dominion House of Commons and a stalwart of the United Farmers of Alberta, will come to Victoria on Monday, September 11, to give an address in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium under the auspices of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation, it was announced yesterday, by officials of the Victoria Branch of the C.C.F.

Mr. Garland was born in Dublin, Ireland, and came to Canada in 1909 after completing his education at Belvedere College, and Dublin University. He worked for a while in Ontario and Quebec, coming West in the Spring of 1911 to take up a homestead at Rowley, Alberta. In 1919 he entered the United Farmer movement and since has been actively identified with the movement. He was first elected at the general elections in 1921, and re-elected in 1925, 1926 and 1930.

Mr. Garland's address here a week from Monday is expected to deal with the C.C.F. movement from the standpoint of the farmers in the Western Provinces.

FUNERAL TODAY

The funeral of Hon. George B. Martin will take place this morning from Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel at 8:45 o'clock, proceeding to St. Andrew's Cathedral, where solemn Requiem Mass will be sung by Rev. Father J. O'Neill. Interment will be made in Ross Bay Cemetery.

For the purpose of having mothers of Victoria give their children a check-up before school begins, Dr. Reginald H. Wiggins, infant and child specialist of the city, is giving a series of radio talks on child welfare.

Sponsored by the Provincial Department of Education, and approved by Hon. Joshua Hinchliffe, the first talk of the series was given last night at 8 o'clock over radio station CFCT. The talks, which will continue for a week, are scheduled for the same hour.

Holiday attire and Sunday clothes are sometimes called glad rags. Their name originated when "glad" still had the old meaning of bright, flashy or gay in color.

TAX RECEIPTS RISE RAPIDLY

More Than $700,000 Collected by City Under Pre-Payment Scheme

Prepayment of taxes started to $700,000 at the close of business at the City Hall yesterday, making the increased collection over the corresponding period of last year $73,122.
 Collections to date are even greater than the entire period last year. The increase in the collections so far for all of last year's prepayments amounts to $30,873.
 On the amounts paid in this year, interest totaling $30,315 will be earned by the property holders, and this amount will be applied to the reduction of their tax bills. Last year the interest earned on prepayments amounted to $18,210, or approximately $2,000 less than this year.

September 2 is the final date for prepayments. After that date all taxes are payable without the added inducement of earning interest.

The treasury department is expecting a big last-minute rush, and the staff is preparing to meet the emergency. Collection of taxes this year was estimated by the council at 81 per cent of the levy, but if prepayments can be taken as any year, this percentage should be surpassed.

 Vines, defending champion, was seeded first among the Americans, while Crawford, who whipped him for the Wimbledon championship, was placed at No. 1 among the invaders and placed at the bottom of the draw. Perry, England's Davis Cup ace who lost to Crawford in the play with Australia but trounced Vines in the inter-zone finals, was seeded second to the Australian in the foreign list.
 Laird Watt and Bob Murray, of Montreal, will carry the challenge of Canada on their young shoulders.
 Behind Crawford and Perry, the invaders were seeded in this order:
 Jirotsch, Japan, H. G. N. Lee, vet-

 Embassy in Washington, D.C., is staying at the Empress Hotel. He is accompanied by Mrs. Simms.

Transferred Plate—John Allison, who excused himself for changing the plates from an automobile to a light truck because he had secured a chance to do a small job, was fined $10 in the city police court, yesterday.

Picnic Postponed—The picnic of the Rotary Club, which was to have been held on the grounds of the University School, yesterday afternoon, was postponed on account of the uncertainty of the weather. Arrangements may be made to hold the event at a later date.

Small Grant Made—The Provincial Government authorized a grant of $50 to the Chief Constables' Association of Canada, with headquarters at Toronto, yesterday, to assist with the work of that organization and in the preparation of its annual year book.

Victoria Welsh Society—An attractive programme has been arranged for the monthly meeting of the Welsh Society, to be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the S.O.E. Hall, when motion pictures taken at the annual picnic will be shown by Fred Williams. A concert will take place, to be followed by refreshments.

Amount Written Off—By order-in-council yesterday, the Province wrote off $880 in seed grain advanced to the farmers under the Beed Grain Act of 1918. The Government distributed seed to numbers of settlers on their promised lands. Some of the notes were paid, and others were not. A balance outstanding is being written off.

B.C. Sportsman Will Race String
 at Winnipeg—Two Jockeys
 With Stable

VANCOUVER, Aug. 30 (CP).—
 Headed by Major Austin Taylor's brilliant two-year-old sprinter,
 today en route to Winnipeg to take part in races there next month.
 Accompanying the crack filly were three other Taylor entries,
 Leg Puller, Wahmonie and Flying Sonoma, and five entries from the George Addison Stable: Gerty
 Pertinacious, Black Paul, Fairman and Miss Goldstream.
 Streamy is expected to be entered in the $2,000 Winnipeg Pursuit on September 13.
 Henry Palaces and "Mouse" Hayward, two top-ranking jockeys during the present racing season, are accompanying the horses east and will ride under the Taylor colors.

 picnic and presentation of championship trophy to the Capitals, winners of the play-off series. The picnic will start at 1 o'clock and members of all teams and their friends are asked to attend. The Hawkins Cup, donated by T. W. C.
 Hawkins, will be presented to the captain of the Capitals. Mr. Hawkins will make the presentation.
 A programme of events has been lined up and prizes will be given to the various winners.

Secure Reduction
 In Transportation
 Cost for Students

Trustees William Tomes and Walter P. Jeune said they had succeeded in gaining a substantial reduction in transportation costs for school students using Vancouver Island
 Coach Lines system, at a meeting of (British) School Board last night.
 The previous tender at $425 a month for the amount the Coach Lines would charge for the year's transportation costs, however, the trustees met Harold Husband, manager of the company, who quoted $385, which

Members of board congratulated Trustees Tomes and Jeune for their excellent work, and appointed them to interview the same firm in an effort to have the Lake Hill line extended about a mile beyond the present terminal.
 In order that Cloverdale School pupils in that district could get to and from school more easily.

Lower transportation charges will be sought on this line by the delegates. The cost of transportation, however, will be borne by the parents.

Saanich Ward Has Interesting Show At Lake Hill Hall

J. B. Munro, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, in Opening Exhibition, Refers to Prizes Won by British Columbia at Regina Grain Show

A VERY attractive display of flowers, fruit, vegetables, needlework, home cooking and children's work was found assembled in the Lake Hill Community Hall yesterday by visitors who attended the tenth annual exhibition of Ward One, held under the auspices of the Lake Hill Women's Institute.

J. B. Munro, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, who formally opened the affair in the invariable absence of Premier Toole, congratulated the exhibitors on the admirable quality of their entries, with special reference to the showing of gladioli and the children's display. He recalled that Vancouver Island exhibition that they had assembled. He regretted that there had been a falling off of interest in cottage garden shows during recent years, and suggested that interest might be revived and the display itself strengthened by an amalgamation of Wards Two and Seven with Ward One. Mrs. J. D. Gordon, provincial president of the Women's Institutes, introduced by Mrs. F. Currie, president of the Lake Hill Women's Institute, noted that it was in the small fair that the exhibitor learned the principles of exhibiting for big shows. She particularly commended the fruit and vegetable sections of the exhibition. The exhibits were well arranged and easy to find, and the general effect was very attractive. The big commercial display of gladioli placed by Arrowsmith & Son, of Bazar Bay Road, effectively filled the south wall of the hall, being flanked by two generous collections of vegetables, staged by Alex M. Scott and Mrs. F. Currie.

On all sides were examples of individual or collective Women's Institute work, a particularly fine sample of institute teamwork industry being a five-pound, wool-filled quilt, the entire process of its manufacture, from the carding of the wool to the actual quilting, occupying less than a day.

Miss Naden, of the Saanich Health Centre, was in charge of an instructive health display that suggested, in its miniature doctor and nurse and hospital equipment, the value of clinics and health examination.

Mrs. Lemon was general convenor of the exhibition, and associated with her were Mesdames Service, Currie, Peddie, Porter, Findlay and Carpenter. Prizes were awarded as follows:

ONE DAY-

"HAD lunch at Carrie's today and she served the most delicious soup—one of the new Heinz Soups, she said it was."

"I WAS all agog to try them myself so I called in at my grocer's and ordered some. The clerk says Heinz Soups are becoming very popular."

"READ the directions and was delighted to see how easy Heinz Soups are to serve. All you do is heat the tin, open, and pour into the plates. Nothing to add."

"HAD my reward this very night. George says he never tasted such satisfying soup. Wants it often. A meal in itself was his verdict."

SKINNY? HUNDREDS ARE GAINING POUNDS THIS NEW EASY WAY

Remarkable discovery—richest imported brewers' ale yeast now concentrated 7 times and iron added. Giving hundreds good solid flesh in a few weeks!

As you know, doctors for years have prescribed yeast to build up health for run-down men and women. But now with this discovery you can get far greater tonic results than with ordinary yeast—regain health, and in addition put on pounds of solid flesh—and in a surprisingly short time.

Not only are great numbers gaining beauty-irradiating pounds, but also clear skin, freedom from indigestion and constipation, new pep.

Concentrated 7 times
This new product, Iro-Yeast, is made from specially cultured brewers' ale yeast imported from the British Isles, the richest yeast we know of, which by a new process is concentrated 7 times—made 7 times more powerful. Then it is treated with a kind of strengthening iron.

Day after day, as you take Iro-Yeast, watch that chest develop, skin shine round out attractively, skin clear—you're a new person.

Results guaranteed
No matter how skinny and weak you are, Iro-Yeast should build you up to a few weeks as it has hundreds. If not delighted with results of very first package, money instantly refunded.

Special FREE offer!
To start you building up your health right away, we make this FREE offer. Purchase a package of Iro-Yeast at once, cut out seal on box and mail it to us with a clipping of this offer. We will send you a fascinating new book on health, "New Facts About Your Body." Bonus package, guaranteed with very first package—or money refunded. Autumn Millinery Opening

Today, Friday and Saturday
Aug. 31 to Sept. 2

You are cordially invited to see our beautiful collection of New Millinery—interpreted in velvet, velvet velour, zantelope, new hairy fabrics and felts.

The new styles show many examples of true French, deft manipulation of materials, but there is nothing "dowager" about them. The Eastern influence is felt here, too, in Afghan, Tibetan and Mongol styles—tallish, with intricate swaths, folded peaks or shirings.

Also there is a decided "May West" influence among the afternoon hats.

The new colors are mole taupe, eel grey, vintage, cruise blue, friar brown, chrona, brown and black.

We offer you experienced and pleasant service—and merchandise at right and tempting prices.

Guest Day at Colwood Is Outstanding Success

Mixed Foursomes and Putting Competitions Enjoyed—Supper and Dance Attended by Enthusiastic Crowd of Members and Friends

The Colwood Golf and Country Club was the rendezvous of a most delightful gathering yesterday afternoon and evening, when the committee held another of the popular "guest days" at Colwood. In the afternoon there was a mixed foursome competition and a putting contest, the former being won by Mr. and Mrs. Rowan MacKenzie, with a net score of seventy-one and a half, while the putting was won by Mrs. C. E. Wilson. Mr. Alfred Crump and Mr. George K. Thompson, who tied with the score of thirty-six, just before supper, which was served in buffet style, at 7 o'clock. Comte Jean de Suzannet announced the winners, and Lady Barnard presented the prizes. The dining-room and lounge had been beautifully decorated for the occasion, and flowers culled from many of Victoria's lovely gardens were massed with charming effects. Dahlias, gladioli, Michaelmas daisies and all the late summer flowers being used. The decorations were the handwork of Mrs. D. L. Gillespie, Mrs. B. C. Richards, Mrs. J. W. Benning, Mrs. D. B. McConnan and Miss Margaret Robertson. The supper arrangements were in the hands of Mrs. D. B. McConnan, Mrs. B. C. Richards, Mrs. David Spencer and Miss Innes Casey.

Golden Wedding Celebrated By Popular Couple

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Woodward, of "Clovelly," North Quadra Street, celebrated their golden wedding on Wednesday by a family gathering at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodward were married on August 29, 1883, at Elmstone Hardwick, Gloucestershire, England. In the Spring of 1888 they came direct to Victoria where they have made their home ever since.

A short time after arriving here, Mr. Woodward started the seed and florist business of A. J. Woodward & Sons, Ltd., which ranks among one of the oldest established firms in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodward, who enjoy excellent health, received many congratulations from old friends and their family, who are all residents in Victoria, with the exception of their daughter, Mrs. J. Curtis Watson, of Vancouver. The two youngest sons, Captain A. G. Woodward and Dr. R. C. Woodward, who are living in England.

Foul Bay Club To Hold Dance

The Foul Bay Community Association has enjoyed a delightful season of activities, including beach parties and tennis tournaments. The club has decided to end the summer with a dance, to be held tomorrow evening from 9 o'clock to 1 a.m. in the Margaret Jenkins School. The proceeds will be devoted to the tennis club. Members and friends are invited to come and get acquainted and begin the fall season with the club.

Wives of Lawyers Are Entertained

OLAWA, Aug. 30 (CP).—Initial event in the programme of entertainment for the ladies who accompanied their husbands to Ottawa for the meeting of the Canadian Bar Association, was the charming dinner given by Mrs. Newton Westley Bowell, wife of the president. The guests included the wives of the members of the council of the Canadian Bar Association. This afternoon, the wives of the judges of the Supreme and Exchequer Courts of Canada entertained at a garden party at the Country Club. The hostesses included Miss Duff, sister of Hon. Lyman Duff, Chief Justice of Canada.

This evening, Major W. D. Herdridge, Canadian Minister to Washington, and Mrs. Herdridge, chairman of the ladies' committee, entertained at dinner in honor of Mr. James Grafton Rogers, former Assistant Secretary of State, at Washington, D.C., and Hon. Mr. Justice Roche, of England.

Marriage to Follow Distant Courtship

NANAIMO, Aug. 30 (CP).—Traveling 4,000 miles to marry a man, she has not seen for twenty-two years, Mary Wheelon is en route here from her home in Alredale, Yorkshire, England.

Miss Wheelon and J. Cusworth, of Nanaimo, who left England twenty-two years ago, became interested in each other through correspondence carried on between the two families and later carried on their courtship by mail with the result that when Miss Wheelon arrives here, she will become Mrs. Cusworth.

The human body, declares a chemist, is now worth only 60 cents, but look at all the doctor expects to get just for patching the darned thing up for you!

Former Victorian Here

A former Victorian who is visiting here and receiving a warm welcome from her old friends is Mrs. D. W. Westfall, of New York, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Griffiths, Dufferin Avenue. A number of parties have been arranged in Mrs. Westfall's honor, before she returns next week to New York.

Social and Personal Notes

Farwell Party
Mr. R. T. Roberts, of Portland, was the guest of honor at a Welsh gathering at the home of Mrs. M. E. Thomas 1719 Stanley Avenue, on Monday evening. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed singing favorite old songs in both Welsh and English. Several solos were contributed by Mr. R. T. Roberts, Mrs. J. C. Williams, Mrs. W. C. Williams, and Mr. Maurice Thomas; duets by Mrs. W. C. Williams and Miss Gwen Jones and Mrs. M. Lewis and Mrs. J. C. Williams. Mr. Stanley James gave the monologues and songs. Several numbers were rendered by the Welsh Glee Party. Miss Helen Thomas gave a piano solo. Mrs. Mason accompanied the singers. Refreshments were served by Mrs. R. T. Williams and Miss Helen Thomas, assisted by Mrs. E. Glass and Mrs. James. Those who gathered to bid "au revoir" to Mr. Roberts were Mrs. M. E. Thomas, Mrs. J. C. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. Gurney, Mr. and Mrs. R. Evans, Mrs. E. Glass, Mrs. J. L. Mason, Mrs. A. P. Thomas, Mrs. M. Lewis, Mrs. M. E. Thomas, Mrs. W. P. Jones, Mrs. R. T. Williams, Mr. J. A. M. Evans, Mr. Fred Williams, Mr. Maurice Thomas, Misses Gwen Jones, Thomas, Williams, Helen Thomas, Messrs. Rhonwen Mason and James Mason.

China Shover
Mrs. L. M. Keeler and her daughter, Miss Elma and Rita Keeler, of Victoria, entertained last night in honor of Mrs. Vince Johns, who will be married next month, when they presented her with a lovely "Paragon" china tea set. The gift was presented by a picture liner on a cleverly constructed tray decorated with mauve and yellow ribbons, which the bride-to-be pulled and launched the ship. Supper was served later from a table prettily arranged in a color scheme of mauve, yellow and silver. Those present were Mrs. C. Johns, Mrs. James Dunlop and Mrs. P. Morrow (Los Angeles), Miss V. Johns, Mrs. W. Crouch, Miss M. Hardy (Seattle), Miss Julie Johnson, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. M. Menkus, Mrs. Mason Sande, Mrs. A. Nichols, Mrs. E. R. Rootley, Mrs. H. Shade and Mrs. R. Heater.

Hostess at Tea
Miss Peggy Macdougall, "Gorsefield," Dallas Road, entertained yesterday afternoon at the tea hour in compliment to Miss Vince Johns, a September bride-elect. Mrs. A. H. Bostock presided at the tea, and was assisted by Misses Mollie Hardy (Seattle), Marjorie Kennedy and Gertrude Hodge. Little Miss Joan Gonnason opened the door to the guests and later presented the bride-to-be with a dainty shower of linen. The invited guests included Mrs. C. Johns, Mrs. W. R. Rootley, Mrs. A. Dunlop, Mrs. F. Morrow, Mrs. A. Puggle, Mrs. A. H. Bostock, Mrs. E. Macdougall, Mrs. Keeler, Mrs. N. Thomas, Mrs. N. Goodwin, Mrs. G. Harris, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. L. Hawley and Mrs. A. Macdougall. Misses Vince Johns, I. O'Neill, L. Dodimead, M. Hardy, M. Kennedy, R. Keeler, A. Keeler, G. Hodge, A. Macdougall, O. Kinsey, M. Walker, K. Bambrick, D. Dunlop, D. Puggle, G. Puggle and H. Andrews.

Dinner Party
Miss Beth Grimison, Springfield Avenue, entertained at dinner last evening in honor of Miss Alex Bradshaw, a much-feted bride-elect. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. W. Nachtrieb, Miss Evelyn Bonney, Miss Doris McMoran, Miss Bradshaw, Mr. C. Connorton, Mr. Maurice Green, Mr. Charles Ozard and Mr. L. Green.

Will Leave Tomorrow
Mrs. John B. Lyon, of Clearwater, Florida, who has been spending a month here at the Small Charming Hotel, will leave tomorrow for Tacoma, where she will visit Miss Agnes Lyon. En route home she will visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Horrie, of Anacortes, Montana.

Will Leave This Evening
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ruggles, of "Aloha," Uplands, are leaving this evening for Jasper Park, where they will spend the next ten days. They will be accompanied to Vancouver by their daughters, Misses Florence and Elizabeth Ruggles, who will spend a month visiting Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Parrell.

Back From England
Mr. Arthur Privett, of the staff of Brentwood College, who has been spending the summer in England, has returned to his home at Brentwood Bay. Mrs. Privett and their daughter, Sheila, will return next month.

Visitors Leave
Mr. and Mrs. E. Chattell, of Qualicum, who came to the city to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Rhoda Chattell, to Mr. Thomas E. Pagdin, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. Chattell, of Dryden Street, have returned home.

Expected Today
Dr. Gaynor Banks, of San Diego, will arrive in Victoria today to address the Guild of Health in the Memorial Hall Chapel tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Dr. Banks is publisher of the magazine "Sharing."

Just Arrived at Firth Brothers Heaterless Permanents

Heretofore Smothering Heat and Weight on the Head Was Tolerated When Having a Permanent. Consequently This New System We Have Installed Will Be Gladly Welcomed.

At no time is the heat on the scalp; no weight on the head. Instead of a trial, having your permanent is a restful pleasure. Whatever type you prefer, Croquinoile, Spiral, or a combination of the two, Off-the-Head Curls or Ringlets, our operators instruct you how easy it is to change the style of your permanent after each washing. You will appreciate the strong, lasting qualities of the waves and curls for months.

Local Association Arranges Programme for Opening of Fall Meetings

The annual fall opening banquet of the Credit Granters' Association of Victoria will be held on Thursday, September 7, in the dining-room of Hudson's Bay Company, at 6:45 p.m. A fine programme has been arranged, and Vancouver and Seattle members will be in attendance.

An orchestra has been engaged and will play for community singing and accompany individual presentations and accompanying individual presentations.

Morse Hall, local president, will extend the official welcome to visitors, who will be introduced by G. A. A. Hedden, C.R.M. Gale, president of the Retail Credit Granters' Association, of Vancouver, will address the meeting.

Dr. Harry Johns and R. R. Webb will be featured vocalists. George Raymond, president of Associated Retail Credit Managers, of Seattle, and E. DeWitt, manager of the Seattle Credit Bureau, will also address the dinner-meeting. Robert Jameson will speak for the local association.

Members of the Vancouver organization will present a skit, assisted by the orchestra.

Judge—"You told the waiter you were going out to get money to pay your bill. Why didn't you return to the restaurant?"

Accused—"I was caught getting the money."

Applause in one form or another is probably almost as old as civilization. Clapping the hands is among the most natural ways of applauding.

MARVIN NELSON WINS FIFTEEN-MILE SWIM

Sons Rally to Win From All-Stars in Exhibition Fixture

Score Six Runs in Last Inning to Nose Out Representative Ball Nine, 6-5—Provincial Series Will Open Here Tomorrow

RIVING in six runs in the seventh and final inning, Sons of Canada, league champions, won the exhibition fixture from the all-star nine last night at the Royal Athletic Park by a 6 to 5 score before a fair crowd.

The Canadians used every available player, including four selected from the other clubs to assist them in their bid for the provincial honors. It marked the final appearance of the Sons before they tackle North Shore, North Vancouver winners, in the first of a three-game series tomorrow evening at the local enclosure.

Up until the final frame, the Sons were beaten by a good margin, but in the last canto, they bunched their hits, coupled with four costly errors, and registered enough runs to win the ball game.

Will Defend Wrigley Trophies Saturday

ABOVE are pictured the defending champions, Jack Gear and Agnes Martin, both of Vancouver, who will be here Saturday in defence of their honors in the annual Wrigley swim events, which will be held from Point Ellice Bridge to the Causeway in front of the Empress Hotel. The men's event will start at 4 o'clock and the women's ten minutes later, both going the same distance. The winners are shown holding the coveted trophies won last year, and will be out to repeat their great victories of twelve months ago. Victoria will have a strong field in the meet, including Denny Walker and Carrie Grey, two of the favorites. On Monday evening at the Crystal Garden, four British Columbia championships will be at stake in the Vancouver Island Swimming League's gala at 7:30.

O'Doul's Hit Hands Giants a 5 to 4 Win Over St. Louis

Single in Ninth Gives New York Narrow Victory Over Cards—Braves Nose Out Cincinnati, 3-2—Cubs and Dodgers Break Even

NATIONAL LEAGUE

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP).—New York Giants kept their six-game lead intact, today, as Lefty O'Doul followed up a home-run blast with a ninth-inning single to drive in the run that defeated St. Louis Cardinals, 5-4, in the deciding final game before the invading Boston team for the first of a six-game series to be played in four days. Boston Braves also won today.

O'Doul's final inning blow, hit with the bases loaded, sent Joe Moore across the plate with the deciding tally, but it was Lefty's fourth home run of the season, following Bill Terry's circuit drive in the fourth inning, that kept the Giants in the thick of the battle.

PETE TYSON TO TURN PRO

Will Seek Canadian Lightweight Mat Championship Here in Fall

Percy "Pete" Tyson, well known in local amateur sporting circles, is deserting the slim-pur ranks for the professional wrestling game, it was learned yesterday.

Negotiations are now pending between George Woods, Canadian lightweight champion, and Tyson's manager, Roy Ward, for a title match in Victoria this fall.

Tyson has been identified with many sports locally, but his main success has been in amateur wrestling and bike riding. He was a member of the Y.M.C.A. wrestling squad and held the British Columbia title for three years. He rode for several years in the Colonist's annual bike classic and several times placed in the money.

He went East last year in an attempt to make a place on the Canadian Olympic team, but failed by a slight margin. He is well known in all Pacific Northwest towns as a wrestler, having performed in Seattle, Portland, Everett, New Westminster and Vancouver.

He also played soccer, baseball, softball, roller hockey, boxing, was quite a swimmer and turned in a fair game of basketball.

FORT DODGE YOUTH SHATTERS MARK IN BRILLIANT DISPLAY

Clips More Than Nineteen Minutes Off Previous Record in Marathon—Bill Goll Second—Young Quits After Swimming Six Miles—Slingsby Forced Out

By JACK HAMBLETON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, Aug. 30 (CP).—Swimming history was written in the blue-green waters of Lake Ontario tonight, when Marvin Nelson, confident Fort Dodge, Ia., youngster, crossed the finish line in the Canadian National Exhibition's fifteen-mile marathon just 7 hours 37 2/5 seconds after he had plunged from the starting barge.

Nelson's phenomenal performance gives him the world's professional title for the distance, and $5,000 in cash from the Canadian National Exhibition. He clipped more than nineteen minutes from the world's record time set by George Blagden, of Memphis, Tenn., and accomplished something no other man had ever done in winning the marathon twice. Nelson won the event in 1930, but took twenty-two minutes longer to cover the distance.

Seldom, if ever before, has there been so much excitement and so many spectators in the annual grind.

FAVORITES FALL

Favorites fell by the wayside, attacked by cramps and gasoline fumes, which hung low over the course. George Young, Toronto; Gianni Gambi, Italy; Clarence Ross, Chicago; Jander Sponder, Port Colborne; Jackie May, Honolulu, and a dozen more were unable to maintain the speedy pace and were forced to retire.

Bill Goll, singing New Yorker, finished second, eighteen minutes behind Nelson. Frank Pritchard, of Buffalo, took third money two minutes later. Harry Clancy, Cincinnati, took fourth place. Stanley Pritchard, brother of Frank, was fifth, and Bill Radakovich, Duquesne, Pa., sixth.

THE MONEY WINNERS

Marvin Nelson, Fort Dodge, N.D., 7:37 2/5—$5,000

MARVIN NELSON WINS FIFTEEN-MILE SWIM

Sons Rally to Win From All-Stars in Exhibition Fixture

Score Six Runs in Last Inning to Nose Out Representative Ball Nine, 6-5—Provincial Series Will Open Here Tomorrow

RIVING in six runs in the seventh and final inning, Sons of Canada, league champions, won the exhibition fixture from the all-star nine last night at the Royal Athletic Park by a 6 to 5 score before a fair crowd. The Canadians used every available player, including four who were from the other clubs to assist them in their bid for the provincial honors. It marked the final appearance of the Sons before they tackle North Shore, North Vancouver winners, in the first of a three-game series tomorrow evening at the local enclosure. The second game is scheduled for Saturday afternoon at 2:30 and the third, if necessary, in the evening, at 5:30.

Up until the final frame, the Sons were beaten by a good margin, but in the last canto, they bunched their hits, coupled with four costly errors, and registered enough runs to win the ball game. Lloyd Cann, twisted good ball for the representative nine, but was a little wild at times, being charged with ten walks. He struck out seven and allowed six hits. The Sons used all their pitchers, except Leo Holden. Musgrave, Muttiah and Cann paraded to the mound for the winners, while Bacon and Purnall did the receiving. Baines being unable to arrive on time.

FAIL TO SCORE

No scoring resulted in the first two frames, despite the fact that the Sons filled the bases in the second, but Purnall grounded out to end the inning. In the third, Hilton started off with a triple, but died on the sack when Campbell fanned and Doherty flied out to Dunc, to end matters. The all-stars took the lead in the third when Stipe and Robinson scored on Marley's hard-driven single to centrefield. The first two batters fanned and Dunc struck out to end the rally. Three hits, two of them doubles, gave the all-stars two more in the fifth. Robinson started with a two-bagger and scored on Cummins' single who, in turn crossed the plate on Marley's double to left. Again the Sons filled the bases in the sixth but Jones struck out Purnall and Hilton in succession to pull himself out of a big hole. Hill made the round trip in the last of the sixth when he singled and scored on Hilton's wild throw to second, the ball going to the outer garden.

RALLY WINS GAME

Facing defeat, the Sons came to life in the seventh and scored six runs to win out. Four errors caused the trouble and sent Jones down to defeat, when he should have been credited with a shutout victory. Campbell, Gandy, Webster, Holman, Cann and Fleming all scored. "Scotty" Robinson pulled the hidden ball trick on Purnall at second in this frame for the second out.

Short score follows:
Sons of Canada 0 0 0 0 0 6
All-stars 0 0 2 0 2 1 0
Batters—Musgrave, Muttiah, Cann, Bacon and Purnall; Jones and Hill.

Will Defend Wrigley Trophies Saturday

ABOVE are pictured the defending champions, Jack Gear and Agnes Martin, both of Vancouver, who will be here Saturday in defence of their honors in the annual Wrigley swim events, which will be held from Point Ellice Bridge to the Causeway in front of the Empress Hotel. The men's event will start at 4 o'clock and the women's ten minutes later, both going the same distance. The winners are shown holding the coveted trophies won last year, and will be out to repeat their great victories of twelve months ago. Victoria will have a strong field in the meet, including Denny Walker and Carrie Gray, two of the favorites. On Monday evening at the Crystal Garden, four British Columbia championships will be at stake in the Vancouver Island Swimming League's gala at 7:30.

Clips More Than Nineteen Minutes Off Previous Record in Marathon—Bill Goll Second—Young Quits After Swimming Six Miles—Slingsby Forced Out

By JACK HAMILTON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, Aug. 30 (CP).—Swimming history was written in the blue-green waters of Lake Ontario tonight, when Marvin Nelson, confident Fort Dodge, Ia., youngster, crossed the finish line in the Canadian National Exhibition's fifteen-mile marathon just 7 hours 37 1/2 seconds after he had plunged from the starting barge.

Nelson's phenomenal performance gives him the world's professional title for the distance, and $5,000 in cash from the Canadian National Exhibition. He clipped more than nineteen minutes from the world's record time set by George Blagden, of Memphis, Tenn., and accomplished something no other man had ever done in winning the marathon twice. Nelson won the event in 1930, but took twenty-two minutes longer to cover the distance.

Seldom, if ever before, has there been so much excitement and so many upsets in the annual grind. Favorites fell by the wayside, attacked by cramps and gasoline fumes, which hung low over the course. George Young, Toronto; Gianni Gambi, Italy; Clarence Ross, Chicago; Isador Sponder, Fort Colborne, Ont.; Jackie May, Honolulu, and a dozen more were unable to maintain the speedy pace and were forced to retire. Bill Goll, slinging New Yorker, finished second, eighteen minutes behind Nelson. Frank Pritchard, of Buffalo, took third money two minutes later. Harry Clancy, Cincinnati, took fourth place. Stanley Pritchard, brother of Frank, was fifth, and Eli Radakovich, Duquesne, Pa., sixth.

THE MONEY WINNERS

Marvin Nelson, Fort Dodge, N.D., 7:37:37 1/2 $5,000
Bill Goll, New York, 1:18:28 1,800
Frank Pritchard, Buffalo, 1:20:45 3-8 700
Harry Clancy, Cincinnati, 1:26:29 9-8 500
Stanley Pritchard, Buffalo, 1:28:54 800
Eli Radakovich, Duquesne, Pa., 1:31:00 3-8 100

Dozens of other swimmers were still in the water when these had finished, but were removed by order of exhibition officials. Among them was Alfred Bully, Toronto, in seventh position when taken out. The race had its tragic moments, however. Jackie May, Honolulu, had started as usual. An unusually fast water skier, he was found the 72 degrees entirely to his liking for a time. In the first three miles, no one could catch him, but he simply folded up from his own exertions.

When the seventh mile was ended, however, Nelson spurred until he had beaten Ross into submission, then widened his lead as he willed, finishing the race fully a half a mile in front of Goll. The two Pritchards surprised many. Both of them are short-distance swimmers, and while they have entered other marathons here, have never before shared the prize money. This morning they arrived in Toronto from Buffalo with $7 in cash between them—enough to hire boats to accompany them. Between them, they divided $900 as a result of their efforts.

YOUNG'S FAILURE UPSET Failure of Young and Gambi to place was the biggest surprise, however. Young had been training quietly under the direction of his wife, Margaret Raylor Young, who, three times in succession, won the women's marathon here. Today he held back in third position for the first mile, moved up to second in the next, swam third in the next two miles, but swam slower and slower. Shortly after the end of the seventh mile, he called to his boat.

Mrs. Young and Torchy Pedersen, Victoria cyclist, urged him to continue, but Young swam to his buoy, declaring his eyes bothered him and he was too dizzy to continue.

SLINGSBY FORCED OUT Ted Slingsby, Victoria, biggest man in the marathon swim, was taken out after covering four miles. He was troubled with a sore knee. Slingsby weighs 276 pounds.

George A. Taylorson, Victoria and Campbell River trained all winter in the Pacific Ocean, but it didn't help him a bit. Taylorson was forced to drop out of the marathon after he had covered six miles. Taylorson had been swimming for more than four hours when cramps overtook him and forced him to relinquish his hope of winning the $5,000 prize.

JIMMY SMITH TO MANAGE NANAIMO Elected Head of Up-Island Soccer Team—Other Officers Chosen

NANAIMO, Aug. 30 (CP).—Jimmy Smith, who conducted Nanaimo City eleven on the Interior, was elected manager of the team at a reorganization meeting here, last night. He succeeds W. Rafter, the pilot during the Dominion Cup series, following resignation of Nat Bevis.

Bob Sample was the unanimous choice of the meeting as president and J. Sutton and E. J. Vanden as vice-presidents. H. Thorneycroft was re-elected treasurer, and J. W. Southern succeeds Len Wharrie as secretary. Archie Philip and W. Rafter remain trainers.

Remember When
(Twenty-Five Years Ago)

The baseball season, as far as Victoria is concerned, practically over. There will be, at the outside, but three or four more fixtures. In view of the approaching disorganization of the club for the winter months, the fans have been busy figuring the record achieved by the local nine. Northcott led the batters all through the season with an average of .324, while Plummer was next with .308. Plummer led the base stealers with thirteen to his credit, while Lang was second with twelve, and Waiter and McConnell tied for next spot with eight each. Jack Rihet and Lang were the heavy long-day hitters with ten extra base clouts opposite their names. In the sacrifice hit column, Plummer again topped the list with five.

Maple Leafs increase team, of Vancouver, scored a 7-to-3 victory over Victoria yesterday afternoon at the Royal Athletic Park before a big crowd. The Mainlanders took the lead in the early minutes and were never headed. Ross, Hancock and Manson scored 2 locals, the former in the second quarter and the latter pair in the final period. Victoria lined up as follows: Johnson, Clegg, Batterby, Manson, Kroeger, Okell, Fairall, Pettitrew, Hancock, McClellan, Cosford and Ross. Secret, Vancouver, and O. Owens, Victoria, handled the game.

The interesting three-cornered fight for the National League pennant is closer than ever today as a result of yesterday's fixtures, Pittsburgh, the leaders, New York and Chicago are gunning for the flag. Yesterday New York lost to Chicago in a classic game before a big crowd, while Pittsburgh who played a doubleheader with Philadelphia, split even. New York is now only one game ahead of Chicago, while the latter is only half a game in front of the third-place Pittsburgh club. Christy Mathewson pitched for the Giants against Cleveland and held the Cubs hitless until the seventh, when they got to him for six hits, which netted three runs, enough to win the game by a small margin.

James Bradd, British open golf champion, was seen at his best other day on the Royal Deven Club at Westward Ho, when he played in an exhibition match with Harry Vardon, Alex Hurd and Ted Ray. Bradd toured the difficult course in 69, a new links record, while Vardon had a 74. Hurd a 78 and Ray a 78. Bradd went out in 34 and back in 35.

SCHMELING WILL MEET SPANIARD

German Batter and Uzcudun to Fight in Holland in October

By EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 30. — Joe Jacobs, little man with the big cigar, stepped up today and in one continuous burst of oratory not only cleared the mystery of the whereabouts and future plans of his heavyweight, Max Schmeling, but at the same time worked a large part of Madison Square Garden's plans for increased activity among the big fellows.

"I've just received a cable from Schmeling," Joe announced, "and he wants to know if it's all right to fight Paulino Uzcudun fifteen rounds in Amsterdam, Holland, the first week in October, for a big guarantee. I can't say now much right now."

"Right away I cabled back it's not only all right, it's perfect, and I'll sail for Germany in a few days. The Nazis don't worry me none. I'll bring Schmeling back with me. That should answer everybody that's wondering whether Max will fight again."

Joe then got down to the major part of the broadcast.

TO MEET SHARKEY "When we get back we're going to fight Jack Sharkey, December 8. But, right here, I want to say for publication for the first time, I will never let Schmeling fight for Madison Square Garden as long as Jimmy Johnston is the matchmaker there."

The Garden is the place for Schmeling to fight Sharkey. The fight would draw $200,000 indoors. Sharkey's willing. But if Johnston is still in the Garden, December 8, then the fight goes to Chicago.

Pearce Favored To Whip Phelps In Sculls Race

TORONTO, Aug. 30 (CP).—

With the world's professional sculling title at stake, Bobby Pearce, Olympic champion and one-time Diamond Sculls holder, and Ted Phelps, of England, present littleholder, have concluded training and are awaiting the gun which will start them on their match race Friday.

Both are reported in the pink of condition and anxious to match blades over the Canadian National Exhibition's course. Pearce today was a 5-3 favorite over his lighter rival to win the event, but experts are non-committal as to Pearce's chances.

Single in Ninth Gives New York Narrow Victory Over Cards—Braves Nose Out Cincinnati, 3-2—Cubs and Dodgers Break Even

NATIONAL LEAGUE

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP).—New York Giants kept their six-game lead intact, today, as Lefty O'Doul followed up a home-run blast with a ninth-inning single to drive in the run that defeated St. Louis Cardinals, 5-4, in the league leaders' final game before invading Boston tomorrow for the first of a six-game series to be played in four days. Boston Braves also won today.

O'Doul's final inning blow, hit with the bases loaded, sent Joe Moore across the plate with the deciding tally, but it was Lefty's fourteenth homer of the season, following Bill Terry's circuit drive in the fourth inning, that kept the Giants in the thick of the battle.

PETE TYSON TO TURN PRO

Will Seek Canadian Lightweight Mat Championship Here in Fall

Percy "Fats" Tyson, well known in local amateur sporting circles, is deserting the slim-pur ranks for the professional wrestling game, it was learned yesterday.

Negotiations are now pending between George Woods, Canadian lightweight champion, and Tyson's manager, Roy Ward, for a title match in Victoria this fall.

Tyson has been identified with many sports locally, but his main success has been in amateur wrestling and bike riding. He was a member of the Y.M.C.A. wrestling squad and held the British Columbia title for three years. He rode for several years in the Colonist's annual bike classic and several times placed in the honey.

He went East last year in an attempt to make a place on the Canadian Olympic team, but failed by a slight margin. He is well known in the Pacific Northwest towns as a wrestler, having performed in Seattle, Portland, Everett, New Westminster and Vancouver.

He also played soccer, baseball, softball, roller hockey, boxing, was quite a swimmer and turned in a fair game of basketball.

TERRY REGAINS BIG SIX PLACE

Giants' Manager Displaces Hitless Schumacher—Klein Boasts Average

Bill Terry connected with only one hit, a home run, yesterday, but that one blow gave him a batting average of .333 for the day and showed him back into baseball's Big Six. He replaced Wes Schumacher, who could do nothing with Ralph Birkofer's offerings in the Pirates-Phillies game. Chuck Klein got two out of the four hits off Birkofer to boost his average one point to .379.

Virgil Davis went hitless and four points, but retained runner-up honors in the National League's half of the sextette. The American League members were idle.

Stock and Bond Prices Drop at New York Mart

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP).—A rather uninteresting market, wheat on the other hand, rallied vigorously after an early sag; its recovery served to check the downward swing in shares but the list slipped again at the close and net losses of a point or more were numerous.

Trade statistics coming to hand at mid-week served to emphasize the previously apparent seasonal contraction in industry. Mining shares, stimulated yesterday by President Roosevelt's gold order, appeared to have discounted the prospective improvement in earnings as a result of better selling prices; they met considerable profit-taking and finished with numerous losses of one point or so. Cotton had a flurry when a rumor of imminent Russian recognition was floated, but that commodity was off to 65c a bale net. Stock sales totaled 2,170,780 shares.

Oil equities were fairly firm and utilities also braced a bit, but railroads and industrials were sluggish. Washington's repeat vote, like Missouri's, found the wet issues indifferent.

Money weakened. The stock exchange posted a record-low call loan renewal rate of 3-4 of 1 per cent, thus breaking with the 1 per cent figure which had been regarded as artificial in view of general conditions in credit markets. Funds were available unofficially at 1-2 of 1 per cent. Bankers' acceptance rates were cut another eighth, reflecting a stronger investment demand and reduction in yields on Government obligations through purchases of the reserve system.

Bonds displayed little interest today and at the close prices were mildly mixed. Sales totaled $9,036,000 par value.

Fractional losses and declines were the rule in most of the prime investment groups. In the speculative categories, the majority of net price changes were also unimportant. United States Government securities eased and foreign obligations were irregular.

Canadian business, at the opening of the current month, registered 29.4 per cent below the normal line, according to the McConnell & Ferguson monthly index. This represents a net gain of 3.2 per cent over the previous month and compares with 26.9 per cent below normal a year ago.

The increase is principally accounted for by an 11.3 point gain in bank debits after adjustment for rising prices. Freight loadings gained six-tenths of one point and electric energy output one-tenth. Construction contract awards were up 3.7 points.

American indexes, which rose very sharply during the course of July, have receded slightly, but indicated conditions in that country as about 20 per cent below normal.

The following table shows the four component factors and the combined weighted index after the usual statistical refinements:

	This Month	Last Month	Year Ago

Bank debits	91.4	80.1	82.5

WHEAT FUTURES TURN STRONGER

Prices Advance More Than Cent at Winnipeg Following Chicago Lead

WINNIPEG, Aug. 30 (CP).—Wheat prices swept buoyantly upward on the grain exchange today and finished 11-8 to 11-2 cents above the previous close.

A rally in the Chicago market was the signal for action here and fair purchases quickly sent prices higher in late dealings. Prices were all firm at the close, only slightly under the high points, with October at 71 1-4, December at 73 1-8 and May at 78 1-8 cents.

Export business, estimated at 200,000 bushels, was not a market factor, though weakness at Liverpool had a depressing influence.

There was a fair demand for No. 2 Northern in the cash grains, but other grades were unchanged. Coarse grains were all strong.
